Winners of the 6th Arte Laguna Prize Announced

At Arsenale of Venice (Italy), five overall winners of 6th Arte Laguna Prize received a money prize of 7,000 euros each: in the photography section, the winner is Torsten Schumann with "Ton tun" because of the interesting relationship between the urban and human architecture, represented in the photo with studied irony. Torsten Schumann is obsessed with what people do in their freetime, especially outdoors, in nature, in the garden or on the street. He collects the split seconds of everyday situations that are irritating and odd. The perfect world of suburban Germany and post wall industrial breakdown floats on an innertube of surrealist air. Born in Dresden in 1975 Schumann began photographing in the early 90 's at a time when self-reflection of German identity allowed him to bare the touch of self-irony.

Among others photographers finalist there are Valeria Anzolin, Greg Allum, Alexandre Maubert, Noga Shteiner, Ana Cristina Born, verena Brandt, Minucci francesco, Kim Soyoun, Cetrobo, Giovanni Presutti, Fabiano Parisi, Barone, Frank Herholdt and more.

On the April Fine Art Calendar you can see all the finalist images. Free subscribe.
