

CALL FOR ARTISTS AND DESIGNERS: 14TH ARTE LAGUNA PRIZE

The Arte Laguna Prize is an international art competition whose aim is to promote contemporary art and its artists, allowing them to display their creative self. To Performance in particular, the Prize offers the golden opportunity to artistically express, giving the category's finalists the chance to perform live during the opening night of the Collective Exhibition, which will be held in the suggestive location of the Arsenale, in Venice. The theme is open and there are no nationality, age or gender restrictions. Where: Venice, Italy Deadline for applications: 27 November 2019