About the display venue:

In the sixteenth-century spaces of the Venice Arsenal, Arte Laguna Prize exhibits the works of the artists selected by the international jury of experts and professionals from the art world. The place that hosts the works of contemporary art was once the great shipyard of the Serenissima Republic and still retains the charm of industrial archeology.

3000 square meters of exhibition

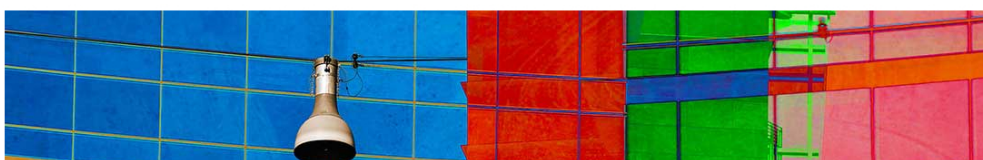

Over 100,000 visitors

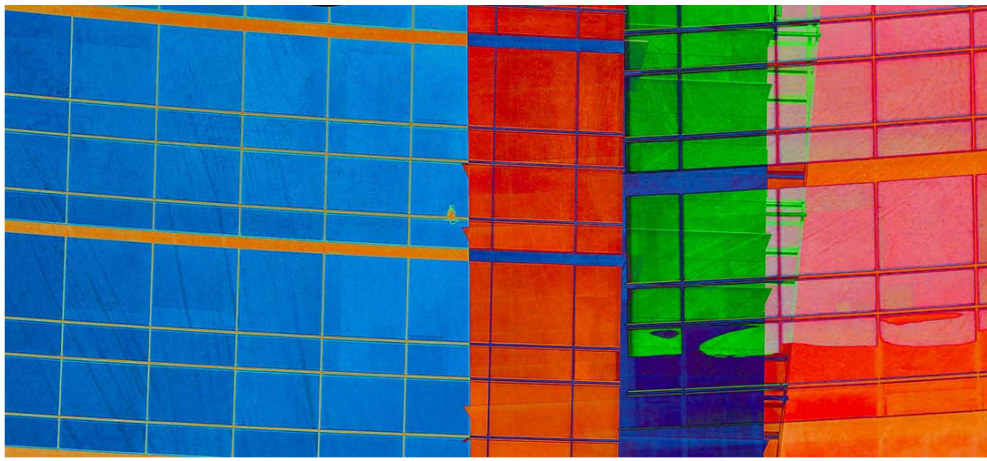

1,470 exhibited works

The exhibition is free admission, open for 3 weeks, and includes curatorship, catalog, set-up, vernissage, and award ceremony. The exhibition is enriched by art talks, multilingual guided tours, and cultural mediators. After the exhibition, the artists from the Arte Laguna Prize exhibit in many other locations around the world, participating in art residencies, festivals, and events.
