The Arte Laguna Prize 20 – 2025, organized by the MoCA Cultural Association, is a prestigious international competition offering emerging and established artists a platform to showcase their work in Venice, Italy. Open to creators of all ages, nationalities, and artistic backgrounds, the contest admits diverse techniques, including painting, sculpture, photography, video art, and digital design. With a grand prize of €10,000 and an exhibition at Venice's historic Arsenale Nord, the competition emphasizes innovation, technical skill, and creative expression. Submissions close on July 31, 2025, and finalists will exhibit their work in 2026, gaining exposure in one of the art world's most iconic locations.

The Arte Laguna Prize 20 – 2025 invites artists to explore any theme. Each category has specific technical guidelines, such as size limits for paintings (175 cm per side) or duration caps for videos (15 minutes). This breadth ensures opportunities for traditional and experimental artists alike, whether they work with physical materials, digital tools, or interactive installations.

Prizes include international visibility through the Arte Laguna World e-commerce platform, a 15-day art residency in Venice, and collaborations with galleries and festivals. While the entry fee is steep, the contest's global reach and institutional recognition make it a compelling option for artists seeking career advancement. For those willing to invest, the Arte Laguna Prize 20 – 2025 offers a rare chance to join a network of over 10,000 past entrants and exhibit in a venue synonymous with artistic prestige.
